Time and Attendance

Plan, Manage, Track and Process Associate Work Time with Ease

Retailers face several challenges when it comes to planning and managing associates' work time, from fluctuating demand and staff availability to managing multiple locations and seasonal hiring. An accurate, compliant time and attendance system is an imperative. Today's retailer needs the ability to configure pay, manage attendance, keep up with benefit and timekeeping rules, comply with government regulations, define business policies and control access – all to ensure compliance and consistency across your workforce.

Logile's Time and Attendance solution accurately and efficiently automates the process of collecting, calculating and reporting of associate work data. Replace traditional timekeeping methods to streamline the entire pay process, reduce errors, control labor costs, increase associate engagement and productivity, improve customer service and drive sales.

Key Capabilities:

- Logile Clock: Turn any mobile device into a timeclock. Deliver cost-effective responsive time and attendance that is flexible, smart and compliant for nimble store operations.
- Configurable Dashboard: Centralize management with a user-friendly dashboard for adding, removing and updating time, attendance and regulatory rules with the goal of managing by exception.
- Exception Alerts: Quickly identify time-entry exceptions that may otherwise go undetected, comparing when an associate clocks in and out for work against their actual schedule.
